Creating a Tarot Spread
Wednesday, July 29th
6:30pm - 8:00pm

As every Tarot student and practitioner knows, there are hundreds of Tarot spreads which can be used to "read" the fortunes of patrons and catch glimpses of future possibilities. However, sometimes a Tarot reader wants to create a spread for their own practices or for a purpose unique to their clientele. But how does a Tarot reader go about creating a new spread?

Please join Bruce Schmidt for a discussion on the steps to creating a new Tarot spread or reworking a standard spread for a specific patron or purpose.

Patrons are invited to bring their own Tarot decks for this talk.
